

Effective July, 2017 Chemos joined the Ecovadis CSR system

July 2017, Regenstauf

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) is an important element in a sustainable development and business globally. Chemos is committed to this initiative and joined in July 2017.

The system itself helped us in tailoring our questioning process with our suppliers further and getting a better understanding about our own position in the supply chain. At the end of the day we are living in one world well connected to each other. It should be our common goal to generate sustainable business opportunities embedded and driven by a social responsibility in light of future generations.
